Note: A professional is deemed to be any individual or company whose primary income is sourced from performing such activity or is contracted to the production for said service, and who is paid directly out of the show budget in return for their services. In this instance they are not eligible for a NAPTA award. An individual working in an unrelated field who is compensated for personal costs e.g. travel, meals, parking costs or time off work to complete show duties is not deemed a professional, and thus is eligible to qualify for a NAPTA award.
